

Complexity in tax matters

Written by Melanie Toye

The usual request I hear is, 'I need an accountant who knows how to do the more complex taxation requirements.' This then goes into further discussion about an accountant who understands the complexity around businesses, shares and/or investment portfolios.

Tax Matters and Business Affairs, pride ourselves on knowing the latest taxation legislations and rulings, and are more than happy to share this information with you.

Not only do we understand all matters in tax, we also understand how it effects you.

If you are running a business, you will want to know what is tax deductible and what records you need to keep.

In addition, you will want to have an understanding of your super and legal obligations as an employer. As well as GST, PAYG withholding tax and fringe benefits tax. Payroll tax, land tax, duties and debits tax.

And understanding your tax obligations when you start up a new business. The good news is, we can offer this advice to you every step of the way.

We even go a step further, by offering our expert business services. Including debt management, annual business health checks and more.

Our speciality does not end there, we also have a strong focus on aviation industry specific tax matters. Plus, we also assist many individuals in their tax returns and taxation advice.

Other tax information such as capital gains tax, tax on share dividends, we can assist you with. Even questions such as if your business can afford a large expense, we can assist you. For example, 'Is now a good time for my business to lease a car and hire a sales rep?' At Tax Matters and Business Affairs, we review how your business is travelling against the cash flow and expenditure, as well as your business plan to offer our advice.

Trust is the biggest commodity we can give you. And through that trust, we ensure our tax knowledge is ready to handle any situation.
